No meetings since 9 months, MUDA works come to a grinding halt

- Today's meeting cancelled due to Legislative Council election model code of conduct
- Last meeting on 27.8.2021 took up 600 subjects and cleared all of them in just a day

Mysuru, May 13 (RK&BCT)- The routine meeting called by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) this morning was cancelled due to the enforcement of model code of conduct for the Legislative Council elections to be held next month.

Sounds routine, right? But the fact of the matter is that MUDA has not called for a single meeting since the last nine months. As a result, all the routine public-beneficial works at MUDA have come to a grinding halt. Forget distribution of sites — a reason why MUDA was set up — even the routine meeting has not been called for reasons best known to MUDA stakeholders.

MUDA Council consists of elected representatives, officials and persons nominated by the Government as its members. The last MUDA meeting was held on Aug. 27, 2021 and as per the Urban Development Department rules, MUDA has to call a meeting once in three months to approve projects and other public amenities.

By not conducting meetings for nine months, MUDA is defeating the very purpose of its formation — to take care of the housing needs of the city. MUDA meetings discuss various issues related to problems faced by residents of layouts created and approved by it. All development works and maintenance of gardens in MUDA layouts are approved at meetings. The revenue-generating task of forming new layouts and distribution of sites need MUDA's approval that is obtained during meetings.

600 subjects in one day

Interestingly, the last MUDA meeting took up 600 subjects and cleared them in just a day. Notably, at the meetings of Bengaluru Development Authority (BDA), subjects are taken up for discussion one-by-one and the unfinished agenda in the day-long meeting is taken up in the next meeting. But the August 2021 MUDA meeting cleared all the 600 subjects in just a day, raising eyebrows.

Even the Budget meeting held on Mar. 31 was limited to presentation of 2022-23 financial papers and none of the new projects were approved. While sources told Star of Mysore that the meetings were not held due to cold war between MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev and Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh (now transferred), both had denied it earlier. Now KAS Officer G.T. Dinesh Kumar took charge as MUDA Commissioner on May 4.

Bride writes exam on wedding day

Aishwarya writing exam at STG First Grade College.

Mandya, May 13 - A bride at Chinakurali got her priorities right, many would agree. For her, the vows of marriage could wait as she had a more pressing issue at hand — appearing for her degree exam conducted by the University of Mysore.

L.Y. Aishwarya (Tejaswini), a first year B.Com student of STG First Grade College, Chinakurali, Pandavapura, dared to be different. She made the day extraordinary by writing her exam between 2 pm and 4 pm in the College premises on May 11.

All decked up in a shimmering silk sari and bridal jewellery, Aishwarya added a welcome change to the usual tension-filled atmosphere of the examination hall. As she took the examination in her bridal attire, Aishwarya surprised as well as inspired many students.

She along with her husband appeared at STG First Grade College in the afternoon to take 1st sem B.Com exam (Digital Fluency subject). Later she said that both the families supported her decision.

Aishwarya has proved like many girls of this generation that education is the first priority. She is a shining example and a role model for aspiring youngsters.

Chairman of STG Group of Institutions C.S. Putturaju, CEO of STG Group of Institutions C.P. Shivraju and Vice-Principal Dr. Nishanth A. Naidu have lauded Aishwarya for her determination and family for their co-operation.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

All people are born as innocent babes. Then how is it that we turn into different shades of grey as we grow older? Our upbringing, our immediate surroundings, our ambitions and expectations of life often lead us down a path which can sometimes prove to be dangerous. Many of us succumb to falsity, dishonesty, greed and lust in the journey of our lives. When we become incorrigible, these demerits become our second nature. When such a person with his vices intact, works hard and passionately and achieves his cherished dream, we can be sure that he or she can prove to be lethal to both self and society.

Power and wealth which follow such successful people turn out to be blinders. They prevent the person from being sensitive to the life around them. They exert their power and treat everyone as their minions. At times they cannot see beyond their noses. Their merit without ethics will pave the way for their sins to visit them in the most unexpected manner. — S. Radha Prathi in Deccan Herald

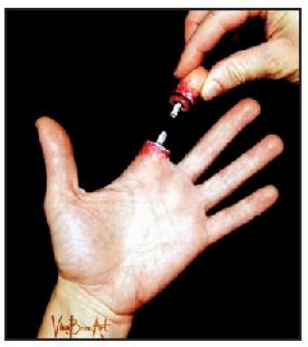
Custom fish tank to take Goldfish on walks

Taipei: A youtuber has created a custom made fish tank, so that he can take his pet Goldfish for walks.

It all started with a series of posts on the Facebook Open Society group from members who claimed to have spotted a man walking his pet fish around Taipei in a contraption that looked like a fish tank on wheels. Some of the photos went viral, and people started commenting that the man pushing the fish tank was a popular Taiwanese DIY youtuber called Huang Xiaojie, aka 'Jerry'. Sure enough, on Apr. 23, Jerry released a video showcasing his invention, calling it one of his toughest challenges yet.

The acrylic tube is the actual fish tank, and it comes with a battery-powered filtration system, an air pump for oxygen, as well as a lighting system, if you really want to show off your fish at night time.

Artist paints her hand to create optical illusions



Haifa: Israeli artist Vika Bren paints her left hand to create various optical illusions that capture the viewer's imagination when placed against a dark background.

Vika Bren is a young artist from Haifa, Israel who has been drawing a lot of attention online with her eye-catching hand-painted illusions. From realistic holes in her palm to making her whole hand look realistically skeletal, there doesn't seem to be an end to Vika's talent and imagination.

To make sure her illusions have maximum effect on the viewer, Vika relies on pitch-black body paint and a black background. This helps her pull off all kinds of effects, from seemingly missing fingertips to her palm being squeezed in a tight knot.

CM honours Mysuru singer with 'Dr. Ambedkar Award'

Bengaluru, May 13 (TRR)- At a function held recently at the Banquet Hall of Vidhana Soudha in connection with the 131st birthday celebrations of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai honoured veteran singer S. Siddarth of Mysuru with 'Dr. B.R.Ambedkar Award' for conveying Dr. Ambedkar's thoughts to the households in Karnataka.

The 82-year-old Siddarth, who is basically from Ashokapuram and now staying in Siddarthanagar, was honoured at a function organised by State Social Welfare Department where Department Minister Kota Srinivasa Poojary, PWD Minister Chandrakant Patil, MLAs Arvind Limbavali, Rizwan Arshad and others were also present.

Siddarth, son of Siddaiah and Maramma, was inclined towards music since childhood and used to get first prize in all the cultural programmes held at schools and colleges. Without any teacher and training of any kind, he learnt on his own the art of singing, writing lyrics and playing harmonium.

In his early days itself, he earned appreciation for singing a song written by himself about Dr.Ambedkar at Ashokapuram Park in the presence of senior politicians like late B. Rachaiah and V. Sreenivasa Prasad who lauded his talent.

Later on, he was given opportunity to sing at all big functions held in memory of Dr.Ambedkar. The cassette 'Ambedkar' which included songs sung, written and composed by Siddarth himself became very popular. In addition, he has brought out cassettes 'Chitraranga,' 'Mahachetana' and others, all his own creations.

Siddarth had attracted public attention by playing harmonium in musical programmes of the calibre of Gaffoor, Mysuru Ananthaswamy, P. Kalinga Rao and others apart from singing songs along with them. Some of the songs written and composed by him became popular film songs too.

Royal Circles need immediate attention

Sir,

This refers to the news item titled "Apathy mars Mysuru's Royal Circles" (Star of Mysore dated May 10). It is highly regrettable to note that heritage Circles are uncared for and neglected. And they will lose their values if the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) continues this apathetic attitude.

It is the duty of MCC to take care of heritage structures. At least the civic body should make arrangements for guarding these structures. While it is appreciable that SOM has thrown light on this subject, hope the MCC will take necessary action at least now.

Tomato fever: High alert at Bavali check-post

Taluk Health Officer, Police, Forest staff visit border; screen Kerala visitors, heighten vigil

H.D. Kote, May 13 (Manju & BCT)- With several cases of tomato flu being reported in children in Kerala, a high alert has been issued at borders and the State Government has instructed the health officials to keep a vigil on daily travellers from the State entering border districts like Mysuru, Kodagu, Chamarajanagar, Udupi and Mangaluru.

"Cases have been reported from Aryankavu, Anchal and Neduvathur in Kerala. So, border districts have been directed to keep a vigil on daily travellers from Kerala and also to monitor children for any signs and symptoms in the OPDs of health institutions," Health Minister Dr. K. Sudhakar said in Bengaluru yesterday.

Accordingly, the Bavali check-post on the H.D. Kote side of the Kerala border has been placed on maximum alert. Mysuru Taluk Health Officer Dr. Ravikumar visited the Bavali check-post last evening along with Police Sub-Inspector Bharat, Senior Health Inspector T. Raviraj, Chikkanna of Forest Department and Health Department staff Sowmya, ASHA worker Manjula and others.

After months of high alert ever since the COVID-19 pandemic broke out along with its various variants, the Bavali check-post will once again be on alert for tomato flu. The check-post is manned by staff from Forest Department, Police and Health Department. Each oncoming vehicle including buses are being checked for patients with red blisters on their hands.

The mysterious viral fever triggered panic in Kerala's Kollam district after it was detected in 80 children, all under five years of age. Abdominal cramps, nausea, vomiting or diarrhoea, discolouration of the hands, knees, buttocks are some other symptoms. Since tomato flu is contagious, close contact with the infected person must be avoided to prevent disease spread.

"Though some symptoms are similar, tomato flu has nothing to do with COVID-19. These symptoms are usually seen in other types of viral infections also. There is no need to panic as the authorities have been asked to remain alert. Moreover, tomato flu is endemic to Kerala," Dr. Sudhakar added.

Tomato flu is a rare viral disease, which causes red-coloured rashes, skin irritation and dehydration. The disease gets its name from the blisters it causes, which look like tomatoes.

Tomato flu is affecting children below the age of five in Kerala. "The main symptoms include large blisters the size of tomatoes which are red in colour. Other symptoms of the flu include high fever, body ache, joint swelling and fatigue — much like chikungunya," a Health Department release said.

Further directions have been given to inform the State Integrated Disease Surveillance Programme (IDSP) section immediately if any cases with such symptoms are detected. District Health Officers (DHO) of concerned districts and other districts too are directed to ensure surveillance.

MUDA officials accused of connivance in illegal Khata transfer of 2.28 acres of prime land

By S.T. Ravikumar

Mysuru, May 13- In yet another case of irregularities in MUDA (Mysuru Urban Development Authority), MUDA officials are accused of connivance in the illegal Khata transfer of 2.28 acres of prime land in Vijayanagar third stage of the city.

The Government had issued a notification for acquisition of 2.28 acres of land (near the present Basavaraj Circle) including 0.9 acre of land in Hinkal Survey No. 292/3 and 1.38 acre of land in Hinkal Survey No.293 for formation of Vijayanagar third stage Layout. But later on, it was discovered that by creation of fake records, the land was entered in the records as not acquired and also the Khata of the said land had been transferred in the name of some private persons, allegedly in connivance with MUDA officials.

Previous MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh after coming to know of this illegal Khata transfer and the issuance of an NOC (No Objection Certificate), wrote a letter to Mysuru Tahsildar on Apr. 29, 2022, seeking immediate cancellation of the entries made in the 9th column of the RTC pertaining to the said land and to notify the land in the name of MUDA. Apart from this, Dr. Natesh also directed the officials to write to the Deputy Commissioner seeking disciplinary action against errant officials and staff and also to reclaim the land after demolishing the unauthorised structures that had come up on the land.

Details

The Government on June 25, 1981, issued the primary notification for acquisition of total of 2.28 acres of land coming under Hinkal survey numbers 292/3 and 293, following which the final notification was issued on Mar. 31, 1984.

Later, the then Deputy Commissioner on Sept. 25, 1985, declared that 1.38 acre of land coming under Hinkal Survey No. 293 was an additional land under the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act.

Questioning the Government's land acquisition process, the land owners filed a writ petition in the High Court, which was dismissed by the HC on Jan. 7, 2009. Later on, the then MUDA Commissioner on Mar. 23, 2011, ordered razing down of unauthorised structures built on the said land, when it was discovered that the then Land Acquisition Officer had issued an NOC mentioning that 0.9 acre of land in Hinkal Survey No. 292/3 and 1.38 acre of land in Hinkal Survey No. 293 had not been acquired. After the NOC was issued, the land was notified in the name of MUDA (MR-63/2006-07) and as per an order of the Court of the Assistant Commissioner, the Khata was jointly registered in the name of land owners Basavaiah, Basavaraju and others on Sept. 23, 2019.

But as per the norms of land acquisition, the owners only have the right to get compensation. But here, despite knowing the fact that the said land was not de-notified, the officials have created confusion by illegally doing the Khata transfer in the name of private persons, following which Dr. D.B. Natesh directed that the said land be reclaimed by MUDA authorities.

Subsequently, Dr. Natesh on May 2 ordered that the land be reclaimed by razing down of structures built on the land. But the officials, under the pretext that the day (May 2) was a Government holiday, did not carry out any drive for reclamation of the land.

Now with the transfer of Dr. Natesh, the MUDA officials seem to have forgotten the issue, which has only emboldened the land mafia to create more fake documents for grabbing Government lands, allegedly in connivance with the authorities.

Reacting to the alleged inaction of MUDA authorities, new MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar said that an operation will be launched next week to reclaim 2.28 acres of land coming under the two Hinkal survey numbers.

Pointing out that the previous Commissioner had already issued a reminder in this regard, Dinesh Kumar said that all unauthorised structures will be cleared for reclaiming the land. Asserting that safeguarding Government lands in its jurisdiction is the main responsibility of MUDA, he reiterated that action will be taken in this regard.

Backward Classes Commissioner inspects hostel facilities

Mysuru, May 13 (MTY&TRR)- State Backward Classes Welfare Department Commissioner K.A. Dayanand paid a surprise visit to Post Matric Girls Hostel in Kuvempunagar recently and had dinner with the inmates.

Interacting with the hostelites, he advised them to learn on their own more to gain knowledge apart from listening to teachers in Colleges.

"It is not possible to achieve anything in life if you waste 9 months and study only for 3 months to write the exams. But it is possible if you study all through the year. Students should dream big and focus on achieving their goals. Great scientists like Einstein, Thomas Alva Edison and others kept trying even after failing hundreds of times and achieved their goals. Similarly students should work hard without losing focus," he said.

District Backward Classes Department Officer H.S. Bindya, who spoke on the occasion, disclosed that six new hostel buildings have been opened recently and works of other buildings were in the final stages.

Pointing out that some hostels are being run in private buildings for which a monthly rent of Rs. 22 lakh is being paid, Bindiya appealed the State Backward Classes Welfare Department Commissioner to sanction 4 more buildings.

Taluk Backward Classes Welfare Officer Chandrakala and others were present.

Gram Panchayat bypolls: Ban orders imposed

Mysuru, May 13- On account of Gram Panchayat (GP) bypolls to take place on May 20 for two Gram Panchayats of the district, prohibitory orders have been imposed from May 18 to 20 in the limits of Haginavalu Gram Panchayat in Nanjangud taluk and Bettadapura Gram Panchayat in Periyapatna taluk.

Accordingly, manufacture, stocking, sale and transportation of liquor has been totally prohibited in these Gram Panchayat limits. Also, all liquor shops have been ordered to close down from 5 pm on May 18 till 5 pm on May 20.

This apart, all fairs, shandies and jatras have been banned in these two GP limits from the midnight of May.19 till May 20 midnight.

Further, as a law and order maintenance measure, the Police have asked all persons residing in these two GP limits, to hand over their guns and other firearms they possess to their respective Police Station immediately.

Also, carrying of any explosives or lethal weapons and such other activities has been banned, according to press releases issued by the office of the Deputy Commissioner, who is also the District Electoral Officer.

Waiting for Lord Krishna

Musings on pada puja, a role-model of a government officer and Bhagavadgita

Sri Vishwesha Teertha Swamiji

Lobo Prabhu

Paduka (Clogs)

A few days back I visited a friend's place in city on learning that a revered Swamiji would be visiting his house for pada puja. A family devotion but I was invited.

I had seen a couple of pada puja (ritual worshipping of a Saint's feet) earlier where the ritual prayer is offered to the feet of the Swamiji placed on a silver or golden tray beginning with an ablution.

The Swamiji so worshipped sits on a dedicated chair during the ritual of chanting of mantras and offering of flowers, fruits etc., as in a trance, rarely opening his eyes.

Mathoor Krishnamurthy, who was the Director of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan (BVB) in London and later in Bengaluru, wanted to revive BVB Mysuru which was in a dormant state. He got together a team and decided to raise funds for a building through his religious discourses at Jaganmohan Palace auditorium to a full house always. Among the congregation were some, so mesmerised, they wanted to invite him for a pada puja to their houses.

Since I was closely working with Mathoorji, one couple approached me to speak to Mathoorji to visit their house for the purpose. Though Mathoorji, in his characteristic smile and a twinkle in his eyes, refused outright saying that he was not a Swamiji or a Saint to be worthy of such a special veneration, he at last agreed for my sake.

Naturally, I was a special invitee and was made to sit diagonally opposite to Mathoorji rather close to him. The rituals began as I have described above. Mathoorji sat stiff, eyes closed. When he opened his eyes, he winked at me with a smile and said "Ganapathyji, these are not my legs" and closed his eyes again. Let it be.

To return to the recent visit to such a pada puja, I was in for a surprise when the revered young Swamiji sat in Padmasana on a dwarfed platform while the ritual was performed to a pair of clogs that looked fresh. Did not seem being used by the Swamiji.

Soon after the Swamiji left the house the atmosphere changed, like the 'climate change', from the metaphysical (spiritual) to the mundane. One person button-holed me for a friendly conversation and asked, apparently awakened by the religious ambience created by the presence of the Swamiji: "Once Sri Vishwesha Teertha Swamiji of Pejawar Mutt was asked by a devotee, quoting verses 7 and 8 of chapter-4 from Bhagavadgita (whenever there is adharma in this world for the protection of the good and the destruction of the wicked, I manifest in every age to establish righteousness. Why this assurance was not fullfilled. We were ruled by the invaders for over 1,000 years, why Krishna did not come to help us?"

Even as the questioner was wondering what answer Swamiji would give, pat came the answer:

"Why do you doubt the Gita. Sri Krishna is already there in your heart. You are already that avatar, that incarnation. You are not aware of it. You are not making up your mind to fight the wicked, the adharma."

That same evening I went to see my another friend to spend some more quality time. I mentioned to him about what I heard earlier after the pada puja about Pejawar Swamiji. This friend raised his eyebrows and asked, "Do you know the person who asked that question to Swamiji?" I said I did not ask nor did he mention. Now the revelation.

This friend is a retired government officer from the Information Department. He is of a kind who is 'more loyal than the king.' If any government employee has followed the political moral precept of the former Chief Minister of Karnataka (then Mysore) Kengal Hanumanthaiah that 'Government's Work is God's Work' which was engraved on the stone building of our Vidhana Soudha, it was this person.

He was posted in Mangalore, near Udupi. Among his duties was publicising and propagating 'Family Planning' message to the people. It was a Government programme entrusted to his Department. But how to get the elephant into the Khedda? He conceived the idea of going places in his van carrying a 16 mm cinema projector and exhibit a film about the famous classical singer M.S. Subbulakshmi who was then in the news having conducted a music concert at the UN which was much appreciated.

The confidence trick was to insert the 'Family Planning' message in-between the screening of the film. The message was conveyed!

Once he was to show that M.S. Subbulakshmi film to Pejawar Swamiji but was not sure how he would like the 'Family Planning' message in the film. So as a person who is true to himself mentioned this to Swamiji. The Swamiji's response was ambiguous but this Officer who was 'more loyal than the king' took a chance. The Swamiji was not offended. Rather he gave a pep talk on the subject after the show.

It was then the Officer posed the 'Gita' question to Swamiji and the Swamiji gave the answer I mentioned earlier above.

My friend had played a similar 'trick' on another overbearing, always news-making ICS Officer from Mangalore Lobo Prabhu. I am sure many of my contemporaries might remember him.

Anyway, though 'Family Planning' is anathema to Christians, my friend came up with a brilliant idea. He produced a film on the embalmed, preserved body of St. Francis Xavier — sacred relics of St. Francis Xavier in Goa. And Lobo Prabhu was happy to see it but there was a clip of 'Family Planning' too.

Lobo Prabhu being a gentleman and a highly cultured person did not feel offended but made his remarks in his British English: Yes, I noticed the sugar-coated pill in the film.

God's work well done. My friend retired from service with a clean hand, a clear heart and a clear conscience.

His name: K. Vijayakumar.

SC rejects plea to postpone NEET PG 2022 exam

New Delhi, May 13 - The Supreme Court today rejected a plea seeking postponement of National Eligibility cum Entrance Test for Postgraduate (NEET PG 2022) examination.

Earlier this week, the Indian Medical Association (IMA) had also written to Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya requesting postponement of the NEET-PG examination which is to be held on May 21. In its letter, the IMA said the NEET PG 2021 was held five months after the scheduled date in September 2021.

Then the counselling scheduled to begin from Oct. 25, 2021 was also initiated (in January, 2022) after a delay due to pending decision on seat reservations and was further delayed owing Supreme Court ruling of Mar. 31, 2022, which ordered the cancellation and conduction of special round of counselling for the Mop-up round.

As a result of the delayed counselling schedule, NEET PG 2022 was deferred from April 2022 to May 2022, so that the candidates could appear for the final stray vacancy round of NEET PG 2021 and can still have plenty of time for preparation and reappearance for the next NEET PG 2022 exam, if they failed to secure a seat this year, the IMA said.

Novel gene plan to save vultures from decimation

University of Mysore signs MoU with Forest Department to undertake DNA profiling

Mysuru, May 13 (RK&BCT)- In a significant step in the conservation of vultures, the Genetics and Genomics Department of University of Mysore (UoM) has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Forest Department for conservation of vultures through DNA profiling.

Under the arrangement, the University will take up studies for vulture conservation and will set up a vulture gene bank. The University will undertake a scientific study and research on biodiversity of vultures at the Vulture Conservation Reserve, Ramadevarabetta in Ramanagara.

Speaking on the occasion, Prof. Hemantha Kumar termed the MoU as historic and is aimed at nature conservation. "Both the University and the Forest Department can play a major role in the area of biodiversity. Today, vultures are declining and are on the verge of extinction. The survival of any animal is based on its genetic structure. We will undertake DNA profiling of vultures. Through the DNA tests, vulture gender can be determined and in turn, it will help in increasing its numbers," he explained.

"The survival of any animal is due to the gene's environmental interaction based on basic principles of genetics. With Genetics and Genomics, we can understand the factors that are leading to diminishing population of vultures," he added. The VC also proposed to organise lecture series to the officers from the Forest Department on the importance of the application of genetics in wildlife management.

Killer chemical diclofenac

The reason for the fast disappearance of vultures at Ramadevarabetta is attributed to shortage of food. Prof. Malini said that vultures are scavengers which feed on carcasses of the dead. In the past, villagers would dump or discard dead cows and buffaloes in the nearby forest and vultures fed on them.

But in recent years, farmers no longer dump these carcasses and instead bury them, leading to shortage of food for vultures. Extensive research has identified the cause of the decline to be diclofenac, a non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drug used to treat livestock. Vultures feeding on the carcasses of animals treated with the drug suffer renal failure and die, she noted.

Despite placing a ban on the veterinary use of diclofenac in 2006, the human doses were misused for cattle treatments. Though the usage of diclofenac has reduced considerably now, it is continued to be misused in some places.

"Earlier, Ramadevarabetta and its surrounding places were home to a good number of Long-Billed Vultures before their population started to dwindle, owing to food scarcity and human disturbance among other factors. Conservation of vultures is the only way to stop extinction. That is why DNA profiling is being undertaken to improve the reproductive strength of the vultures," Prof. Malini added.

Deputy Director of Bombay Natural History Society and Programme Head, National Level Vulture Conservation team, Dr. Vibhu Prakash Mathur also spoke.

The MoU was signed in the presence of UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, Deputy Conservator of Forests, Male Mahadeshwara Wildlife Division V. Yedukondalu, Deputy Conservator of Forests, Ramanagara Division V. Devaraj and Project Principal Convener and Chairperson of Department of Studies in Genetics and Genomics Prof. S.S. Malini on May 12.

MUDA works come to a grinding halt

Policy and finance matters pending

Though the day-to-day work goes on without any hindrances, MUDA has not taken any key decisions involving its policy or finances. Shockingly the issue of over 300 Civic Amenity (CA) sites is pending before MUDA though it has asked the beneficiaries to remit the initial amount. Even the ambitious group housing scheme is pending.

Except for sanctioning plans for private layouts and auctioning of sites, no other work is being undertaken at MUDA.

Even the issue of title deeds for over 3,000 residents of Vasanthnagar, Lal Bahadur Shastri Nagar and Shanthaveri Gopalagowda Layouts is pending.

The meeting that was scheduled to be held today had over 500 subjects. But the question here is why was the meeting called today despite the officers knowing very well that Council elections will be held in June and model code of conduct is bound to come to force.

This is just a question of accountability, say people who are aware of MUDA affairs.

Music to ears: Band House to regain its past glory

Bank Note Paper Mill to contribute Rs. 64 lakh for renovation

The old Band House building at Nazarbad, which will be renovated.

Mysuru, May 13 (SBD&BCT)- The Band House that once housed the Mysore Police Band will be brought back to its past glory and restored to its original place — Old Mysore City Police Commissioner's Office at Nazarbad.

At present, the Band House is located at Mounted Police Company on Lalitha Mahal Road. Not only this, the Band House will be renovated with an estimated cost of Rs. 64 lakh.

The Bank Note Paper Mill, a joint venture of Security Printing & Minting Corporation of India (SPMCIL) — a Government of India Enterprise and Bharatiya Reserve Bank Note Mudran Private Ltd. (BRBNMPL) — a Subsidiary of Reserve Bank of India, has come forward to fund the project under its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) outreach activities.

The Band House building is about 102-years-old and has an open balcony and gable-tiled roof. Earlier, the Office of City Police Commissioner functioned from there. Now it has been shifted to the new office adjacent to the old Office.

The foundation stone for the renovation works was laid yesterday along with the associated rituals. The renovation will be carried out by the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage and an agreement has been signed in this regard.

City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, Commissioner of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage B.R. Poornima, Managing Director of BNPM K.G. Viswanathan, General Managers Dharani Kumara, Anant Hegde and Abhay Kumar Mahapatro, Company Secretary Lakshmisha Babu, Deputy Manager S.A. Raghavendra, Administrator of Police Commissioner's Office Umamaheswara, Assistant Executive Engineer of Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage C.T. Mahesh, Assistant Engineer Satish, Deputy Director C.N. Manjula and Contractor T. Subhash were present.

Origin in 1868

Though the present Mysore Police Band traces its origin to 1868, it was during Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar's period, the Band House was constructed on the road leading to Vasanth Mahal Palace in Nazarbad, now housing the District Institute of Education and Training (DIET). The road was later named after Dewan Sir Mirza Ismail.

The Band House had separate enclosures such as the instruments' room, music library and an exclusive concert hall, apart from other rooms that were part of this magnificent structure.

In 1952, when Kengal Hanumanthaiah became the Chief Minister, he brought the Palace Bands under the Police Department. A special wing of the Mysore City Police was formed and trained to play melodious instrumental music to enthral connoisseurs and common man. In 1958, the Band House was shifted to the City Police Commissioner's Office at Nazarbad.

In 1997, a need arose for more space in the Commissioner's Office and the Band House was shifted to Mounted Police Company on Lalitha Mahal Road. Now after renovation, the Police Band will be back in its original place along with a museum of rare musical instruments.

City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta seen with the officials of Bank Note Paper Mill and others after laying the foundation stone for the renovation of Band House in Nazarbad yesterday.

WORD OF THE DAY

Abeyance

Pronunciation: uh-BAY-unss.

Meaning: Abeyance means "a state of temporary inactivity." The word itself is commonly preceded by the preposition in.

Origin: Abeyance comes from Old French baer, meaning "to have the mouth wide open," which was joined with the prefix a- to form abaer, a verb meaning "to open wide," and, in later Anglo-French usage, "to expect or await." There followed Anglo-French abeyance, which referred to a state of expectation — specifically, a person's expectation of inheriting a title or property. The word, in English, was then applied for the expectation to the property itself: a property or title "in abeyance" is in temporary limbo, waiting to be claimed by a rightful heir or owner.

Example: "The consensus of analysts is that the crisis may be in abeyance for the moment, but is far from over." — Fred Weir

THE ODD WORD

Abducent

Turning away; bearing away from.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A blessing in disguise

Meaning: 'A blessing in disguise' refers to something that at first appears to be bad or unlucky but is actually good.

Origin: The origin of the idiom 'A blessing in disguise' is believed to be mid-1700s. However, scholars have yet to pin down the first usage of the term. The earliest instance of the term found in print was a 1746 work by English writer James Hervey titled Reflections on a Flower-Garden. There is no evidence that he coined the phrase.

Example: "My car broke down again, but maybe it was a blessing in disguise; I've been wasting too much time driving around anyway."
